

The Social Ministry Committee invites YOU to participate in our $1,000 Challenge for World Hunger. The bulletin board in the Narthex explains our challenge and gives examples of various ways for you to participate.

Throughout Lent in our Sunday bulletins, we will be sharing stories like the one below describing how the ELCA works to end world hunger around the world .

Thank you for taking the CHALLENGE!

In the village of Uchire, Shadrack Esatimbera has been cultivating trees for two years, and the oldest are nearly ready to sell and transport. His nursery was made possible by a small business loan from the village savings and loan group, started by Evangelical Lutheran Development Services in Malawi (ELDS), supported by your gifts to ELCA World Hunger. In addition to teaching small business plans, like Shadrack's, ELDS trains farmers in crop diversification and increasing yields through new planting methods and the use of organic fertilizers.

In Uchire, as in a dozen or more rural villages in Malawi, many trees are cleared for farming and tree wood is used for crop restoration and to build thatch roofs and stoves that smoke more cleanly, allowing improved farming at the ELDS training school. Shadrack planted the first seedlings in his nursery, which has now grown to 1,000 trees, bringing from saplings to almost fully grown.

Caring for the land and saving lives are of the soil and guarding it from poverty. This work connects Shadrack to the past, links him firmly in the present and into his vision for the future. And that you are wanted here is faith, not only in his personal prosperity but also in the prospering of his community.

"This land has been in my family for five generations," he said. "It is important for me to look after the land of my ancestors, and I want to pass this land to future generations."

The training he received, he will pass on to others. "I hope you realize that training will use it to heal the poverty and cause the people to increase jobs to send their children to school. The land that goes Shadrack, he and I have found will only be inherited by his three children who will receive it in a better way than I was found

SECOND SUNDAY IN LENT

MARCH 17, 2019

In the name of our Savior Jesus Christ, welcome to worship this morning!

If you are a visitor, a special welcome to you, and if you are without a church home, we invite you to join our fellowship. Please fill out the guest card in the pew rack and pick up a welcome packet from the stand in the foyer. If you do not have a Bible at home, please take one from the welcome table. Visitors who are communing members of other Christian congregations are cordially invited to receive the Sacrament with us. Welcome to the Lord's table where we are one with Christ!

For your assistance, comfort and safety, we have ushers on duty before, during and after worship today. Should you need any help, please look for any of the men and women with an "usher" badge. There will be at least one in the lobby during worship. Our ushers are also instructed to offer help to anyone who appears in distress. Restrooms can be found through the door on the left at the front of the church; either proceed downstairs or to the left into the Fellowship Hall. Large print bulletins and hearing receivers are available in the Narthex. Please see an usher for assistance. Please be sure to turn off the hearing receivers after the worship service.

For parents with small children: We are blessed to have so many children in our congregation. Our church family knows that teaching children to worship is simply one of our most important ministries. If there is a need, please take advantage of our nursery room available during worship with a changing table, plenty of toys and audio of our service. Please ask any usher in the foyer to help you find the nursery room. Children's bulletins for readers and pre-readers are provided each week. They can be found on clipboards in the marked milk crates in the narthex and vestibule. Storybooks are also provided there for children to enjoy.

CHILDREN'S CIRCLE

FIRST READING, Genesis 15:1-12, 17-18

¹After these things the word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision, "Do not be afraid, Abram, I am your shield; your reward shall be very great." ²But Abram said, "O Lord GOD, what will you give me, for I continue childless, and the heir of my house is Eliezer of Damascus?" ³And Abram said, "You have given me no offspring, and so a slave born in my house is to be my heir." ⁴But the word of the LORD came to him, "This man shall not be your heir; no one but your very own issue shall be your heir." ⁵He brought him outside and said, "Look toward heaven and count the stars, if you are able to count them." Then he said to him, "So shall your descendants be." ⁶And he believed the LORD; and the LORD reckoned it to him as righteousness.

⁷Then he said to him, "I am the LORD who brought you from Ur of the Chaldeans, to give you this land to possess." ⁸But he said, "O Lord GOD, how am I to know that I shall possess it?" ⁹He said to him, "Bring me a heifer three years old, a female goat three years old, a ram three years old, a turtledove, and a young pigeon." ¹⁰He brought him all these and cut them in two, laying each half over against the other; but he did not cut the birds in two. ¹¹And when birds of prey came down on the carcasses, Abram drove them away.

¹²As the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell upon Abram, and a deep and terrifying darkness descended upon him.

¹⁷When the sun had gone down and it was dark, a smoking fire pot and a flaming torch passed between these pieces. ¹⁸On that day the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying, "To your descendants I give this land, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the river Euphrates."

A The word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

PSALM 27 (read responsively)

- ¹The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear?
The LORD is the stronghold of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?
- ²When evildoers assail me to devour my flesh —
my adversaries and foes — they shall stumble and fall.
- ³Though an army encamp against me, my heart shall not fear;
though war rise up against me, yet I will be confident.
- ⁴One thing I asked of the LORD, that will I seek after:
to live in the house of the LORD all the days of my life,
to behold the beauty of the LORD, and to inquire in his temple.
- ⁵For he will hide me in his shelter in the day of trouble; he will conceal me under the cover of his tent; he will set me high on a rock.
- ⁶Now my head is lifted up above my enemies all around me, and I will offer in his tent sacrifices with shouts of joy;
I will sing and make melody to the LORD.
- ⁷Hear, O LORD, when I cry aloud,
be gracious to me and answer me!
- ⁸"Come," my heart says, "seek his face!" Your face, LORD, do I seek.

⁹Do not hide your face from me.
Do not turn your servant away in anger, you who have been my help.
Do not cast me off, do not forsake me, O God of my salvation!

¹⁰If my father and mother forsake me,
the LORD will take me up.

¹¹Teach me your way, O LORD, and lead me on a level path
because of my enemies.

¹²Do not give me up to the will of my adversaries, for false witnesses have risen against me, and they are breathing out violence.

¹³I believe that I shall see the goodness of the LORD
in the land of the living.

¹⁴Wait for the LORD; be strong, and let your heart take courage;
wait for the LORD!

SECOND READING, Philippians 3:17--4:1

¹⁷Brothers and sisters, join in imitating me, and observe those who live according to the example you have in us. ¹⁸For many live as enemies of the cross of Christ; I have often told you of them, and now I tell you even with tears. ¹⁹Their end is destruction; their god is the belly; and their glory is in their shame; their minds are set on earthly things. ²⁰But our citizenship is in heaven, and it is from there that we are expecting a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ. ²¹He will transform the body of our humiliation that it may be conformed to the body of his glory, by the power that also enables him to make all things subject to himself. ^{4:1}Therefore, my brothers and sisters, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord in this way, my beloved.

HOLY GOSPEL, Luke 13:31-35

³¹At that very hour some Pharisees came and said to [Jesus,] “Get away from here, for Herod wants to kill you.” ³²He said to them, “Go and tell that fox for me, ‘Listen, I am casting out demons and performing cures today and tomorrow, and on the third day I finish my work. ³³Yet today, tomorrow, and the next day I must be on my way, because it is impossible for a prophet to be killed outside of Jerusalem.’ ³⁴Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to it! How often have I desired to gather your children together as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, and you were not willing! ³⁵See, your house is left to you. And I tell you, you will not see me until the time comes when you say, ‘Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.’”
